- Guinness Storehouse
- Temple Bar

Complimentary airport transfers will be provided as follows:

- Complimentary transfers are available until 12:00 PM only. Guests arriving this time are kindly requested to arrange their own transportation.

Arrival Day:

- Complimentary transfers will be available throughout the day to accommodate varying flight schedules.

One of Europe's most thrilling capitals, Dublin impresses on every level. Vibrant and energetic, the city pulsates with a compelling mix of cosmopolitan and traditional yet peel back the layers and you'll see that it has managed to maintain its moral essence as a City that is authentically Irish.

Steeped in history and bearing sometimes heartbreaking historical tales from the times of the 1916 Rising, the City can be easily explored on foot, which allows you to immerse yourself entirely as you leisurely wander the streets of Dublin.

Your tour begins in the lobby of your first hotel at 2 pm. From there, you'll make your way with your Driver/Guide to the mighty Guinness Storehouse, where you'll experience the history, heart, and soul of Ireland's most beloved beer.

Explore the story of Guinness' past & present. Then, you'll get to explore Dublin Castle. That evening, enjoy Dinner with your Group and afterwards, head to one of the many bars in Temple Bar, all bursting with engaging characters in search of the 'craic'.

Paddy Campbell's Belfast Famous Black Cab Tour

Paddy Campbell's Belfast Famous Black Cab Tour

Why not enjoy an escorted tour of Greater Belfast's historical sites. Let your experienced driver take you on a journey back in time to explore the many places of interest. You choose what you want to see or simply leave it to the driver.

There is lots to see, such as:

Belfast Nationalist Murals & The Peace Line

The political murals of the Falls and the Shankill tell their own graphic story of what has been called "The Troubles" in Ireland's recent history. See the infamous Peaceline, a wall built to keep Nationalists and Loyalists apart and in the process divided the communities.

Crumlin Road Jail and Court House

These Victorian buildings played a major part in the conflict in Ireland for over 160 years, convicting, imprisoning and even executing many of those in the war. These buildings have witnessed the uncovering of many ruthless killings and bombings and have seen many escape attempts.

Belfast City Hall

Built during 1896-1906 by Alfred Brumwell Thomas, it is the home of Belfast City Council. This magnificent Edwardian "wedding cake" was built to reflect Belfast's City status which was granted by Queen Victoria in 1888. The Dome is 53 metres (173 feet) high. Above the door it says "Hibernia encouraging and promoting the Commerce and Arts of the city". You may go inside to find out about guided tours and to pick up leaflets explaining the statues in the surrounding gardens.

Albert Memorial Clock

Located in Victoria Street and built by WJ Barrie in 1865, the tower leans 1.25 metres (4 feet) off the vertical, the Clock's unsteadiness is due the the fact that it was built on land reclaimed from the river. The tower is 35 metres (113 feet) high and centres around Prince Albert, Victoria's consort. Crowned lions holding shields and floral decoration surround the clock itself.

Crown Liquor Saloon

The Crown on Great Victoria Street was built 1839-1840 and is owned by the National Trust. Drinkers of the city know well it's opulent marble, brilliant Italian tile work, fine glass engraving, embossed ceiling and cosy booths bedecked with gryphons and lions. Panels in the restaurant on the first floor were meant for the Britannic, the sister ship of the Titanic.

Titanic

Built in Belfast, it was perhaps the most famous ship that ever sailed, sinking on her maiden voyage. See where she was designed and built at Harland and Wolfe shipyard and stand on the dockside where she was tied up in 1912 before her fateful journey.

Dinner @ Jospers Steakhouse & Restaurant
Jospers Steakhouse & Restaurant •
Ten Square Hotel, 10 Donegall Square South, Belfast BT1 5JD, United Kingdom

The clue is in the name... and for the juiciest, most flavoursome steaks around, no matter how you take it, it's hard to beat a Josper-cooked steak! The secret is our Josper grill, a very particular style of Spanish charcoal oven, which is regarded by chefs worldwide as the finest method of cooking super tender steaks, while locking in all those wonderful flavours.

So whether it's Sirloin or Rib Eye you prefer, the unique smoky, barbecue-style taste of our locally sourced, prime aged steaks is, we believe, out of this world! If, however, steaks are not your thing, then fear not, as we also offer a wide-ranging & varied menu, including a selection of delicious seafood & vegetarian dishes, a quick & easy Light Lunch menu, not to mention an extremely tempting array of elegant desserts!

We sincerely believe that the produce we have on our doorstep here in Northern Ireland is some of the finest in the world. So we are incredibly proud to work with as many local suppliers as possible, whose goods and ingredients mean that our dishes represent the best NI has to offer. All of our meat comes direct from the award-winning McAtamney Butchers based in Ballymena, and we also work with the brilliant North Down Group, who provide us with all our lovely fruit & veg. Recently refurbished, the new Jospers at Ten Square is the must visit Steakhouse & Restaurant in the heart of the City - fresh, tasty cuisine, cooked to your liking and served in our beautiful new City Centre setting. Don't take our word for it though - come and see for yourself!

Donegal
Donegal

Your plan for Donegal....

- Glenveagh National Park
- Mount Errigal
- Slieve League Cliffs
- Killybegs Fishing Village

The second largest county in Ireland and crossed with a chain of low mountains and dreamy landscapes, Donegal just penetrates your soul! One visit to County Donegal and you will long to return. Its remoteness is ideal for travelers looking for that amazing feeling of having reached the end of the earth whilst staring out over the Atlantic from it's many vantage points.

Enjoy views of the Glenveagh National Park as you travel with your Guide. Pay visit to the Slieve League Cliffs which are thought to rival, and dare we say it, trump the Cliffs of Moher! Finally, retire to your hotel in Donegal where you'll enjoy lilting local accents, wonderfully fresh, local foods and talented local musicians in the cozy little pubs and taverns! What's not to love!?

Glenveagh National Park

Glenveagh National Park • Glenveagh National Park, Letterkenny, Ireland

Glenveagh National Park is a remote and hauntingly beautiful wilderness of rugged mountains, pristine lakes, tumbling waterfalls and enchanted native oak woodland in the heart of the Derryveagh Mountains in the north west of County Donegal.

At the centre of the Park on the edge of Lough Veagh is Glenveagh Castle, a late 19th century castellated mansion, built as a hunting lodge.

Glenveagh Castle is a 19th century castellated mansion and was built between 1867 and 1873. Its construction in a remote mountain setting was inspired by the Victorian idyll of a romantic highland retreat.

It was designed by John Townsend Trench, a cousin of its builder and first owner, John George Adair, with whom he had been raised in Co. Laois. The designer appears to have imitated the style of earlier Irish Tower-houses adding an air of antiquity to the castle. The building stone chose was granite, plentiful in Donegal but difficult to work and allowing for little detail.

Mount Errigal

Donegal

The highest peak in County Donegal, standing at 751 meters (2,464 feet), is the tallest of the Derryveagh Mountains in northwest Ireland. Its striking, cone-shaped silhouette is a landmark of the region, with a quartzite surface that glows pinkish-gold at sunset.

Located near the town of Dunlewey, Mount Errigal is a popular destination for hikers and nature lovers. The climb to the summit is steep and challenging, especially near the boggy base, but offers breathtaking panoramic views of the Donegal countryside, including Glenveagh National Park, the Poisoned Glen, and the Atlantic coastline.

Part of the "Seven Sisters" mountain chain, Errigal is also steeped in Irish culture and folklore, symbolizing the region's wild, untamed beauty.

Accessible yet majestic, Mount Errigal is a must-visit highlight for travelers seeking adventure, scenery, and serenity in Ireland's remote northwest.

Learn about the history of Killybegs' fishing industry, from its humble beginnings to its modern global reach, and take in spectacular views of the surrounding bay and hills.

Whether you're drawn by the working harbour, the authentic local culture, or simply the peaceful seaside setting, Killybegs Fishing Village is a memorable stop on your journey through Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way.

Slieve League Cliffs Centre

Slieve League •

Sliabh Liag Cliff Experience & Visitor Centre, Bunglas Road, Teelin F94 W8KC, Ireland

A walk among the clouds... Breathe in the salty sea air and take in the panorama of blue sky and ocean melting together: up here it's as if you're walking among the clouds. Look down, and you'll see the Atlantic Ocean swirling and crashing onto the rocks below. These cliffs are among the highest sea cliffs in Europe, and standing here you'll feel like you're at the edge of the world. The name of these cliffs? Why, Slieve League, of course. The award winning Slieve League Cliffs Centre is a family affair run by husband and wife team Paddy and Siobhan Clarke. Paddy was a deep sea fisherman for twenty years but now has a masters in archaeology and Failte Ireland tour guide, heritage & Hiking guide. In between looking after coach tours and hiking groups, Paddy is the resident barista in the cafe Ti Linn. He makes one of the best cappuccinos in Ireland. Artist and chef Siobhan is the artisan baker serving up homemade scones, cakes, cookies and deserts. Her soups and sea food salads are special. With her eye for colours, Siobhan looks after the craft shop choosing Irish made knitwear, and crafts. You will find a difference here at Ti Linn craft shop. As members of Good Food Ireland Paddy and Siobhan keep high standards serving local sourced food at reasonable prices. In the summer there are traditional music evenings with some well known national players. Winner of CIE Tours International “Gold Award” of Excellence and Best Visit in all Ireland 2010 & 2011, The Cliff’s Centre is all about local culture, food and crafts served with a real warm Donegal welcome and sense of humour. Whether you are seeking a Hiking experience with a difference, a Heritage Tour, Archaeological day, Boat trip under the cliffs, Kayaking round the coast or a coffee “to go” drop in or contact us. Remember; Slieve League Cliff’s Centre in your last stop before the Cliffs themselves, there are no service buildings, or Interpretive Centre etc. at the cliffs, unlike other places, Slieve League is very natural and unspoilt for you to enjoy. Your plan for Mayo....

- Westport Heritage Town
- Croagh Patrick

The wilderness and green pastures of County Mayo will make you feel like anything could happen, like you have travelled back in time to ancient Ireland. The authentic charm of this County will overwhelm you! Follow the path of many Irish and foreign travelers up the majestic Croagh Patrick mountain which you will find in the stunning little town of Westport or you can just marvel at it's stark beauty from the base as many choose to do!

Breathe in the fresh Atlantic Sea air at Clew Bay, marvel at Achill's unmistakable cliffs, the Stags of Broadhaven and the sea stack Dún Briste. Mayo is a staff favorite here at Irish Tours For You - one visit and you'll see exactly why!

Croagh Patrick is a peak steeped in history, religion and mythology. At 764m high and offering breathtaking views across Clew Bay, climbing it is also a rite of passage for hiking enthusiasts.

Croagh Patrick is one of Ireland's most stunning mountain climbs with its unique conical shape towering above the edge of the Atlantic Ocean on the rugged west coast. On a clear day, it offers panoramic views of the hundreds of tiny, green drumlin islands in Clew Bay, the Wild Atlantic Way, the gorgeous tourist town of Westport and surrounding mountain ranges.

The mountain is steeped in history. It's believed to have been a pagan pilgrimage route as far back as 3000 BC, before Christian times. It's thought that pagans gathered on Croagh Patrick to celebrate the start of the harvest season.

But the mountain got its name and true fame from St Patrick who is reputed to have fasted at the top of the mountain for 40 days during the fifth century. Due to this Christian link, a small church was built around 1905 and mass is said there at certain times of the year. Because of that, it's better known as Ireland's 'Holy Mountain' or 'The Reek' among locals.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please note that Irish Tours For You Limited terms and conditions are subject to and governed by Irish Law. It is the responsibility of each client of Irish Tours For You to read the terms and conditions of your booking. Your booking is bound by these terms.

Irish Tours For You is an incoming tour operator which means we are a 'land only' service. Irish Tours For You are not responsible for passenger travel into or out of Ireland. We cannot be responsible for any delays, cancellations or other hindrances of passage to Ireland.

Your Travel Booking:

Whether you book alone or as a group, we will only deal with the lead booking name in all subsequent correspondence, including changes, amendments and cancellations. You must be 18 years old at the time of booking and possess the legal capacity and authority to book as the lead name and travel on vacation with us.

You are responsible for ensuring the accuracy of the personal details or any other information supplied in respect of yourself and any other person traveling on the booking and for passing on any information regarding the booking or any changes made in relation thereto, to all persons traveling on such booking, including but not limited to information on schedule changes or copies of booking confirmations.

When you (or a party making the booking on your behalf such as a Travel Agent) ask for your booking to be confirmed, we will confirm the booking, and set aside your chosen accommodation (or similar when your chosen accommodation is not available). Next, we will send you or your travel agent a confirmation. We may not be able to confirm some of our ground arrangements straight away. If there is any change to any of the details discussed at the time of booking, we will notify you promptly of any new or changed details, including a change to the total price (if any).

If any detail on the confirmation invoice is not correct tell us or your travel agent immediately. If there is an obvious error on the confirmation invoice we reserve the right to correct it as soon as we become aware of it.

Insurance:

It is a condition of your booking with us that you and all other members of your party, including infants and children, are adequately insured on vacation. Any person who is under 18 years old must be accompanied by an adult on his/her journey. There may be other restrictions and conditions on some offers.

Irish Tours For You are not responsible for any personal injury, property damage or loss a guest incurs arising from acts or omissions by any hotel or other organization. Irish Tours For You accepts no responsibility for cancellations of or interruptions to a tour due to delay or changes in schedules, flight cancellations, sickness, weather, strikes, war, quarantine, mechanical breakdowns, the actions of any government, weather, acts of God (including COVID 19 and any subsequent variants that arise) or circumstances beyond its control or for expenses or losses incurred as a result of any such circumstances. To guard against such unforeseen circumstances, you should have a travel insurance plan before you travel on your vacation - we strongly recommend that you purchase insurance as soon as your booking is confirmed with us.

Price:

All prices we advertise are accurate at the date published, but we reserve the right to change any of those prices from time to time.

If we cancel your booking in circumstances such as, for example, there are not enough people booked on your vacation or you do not pay the balance of the vacation price on time, we may cancel it. We reserve the right to cancel your vacation in any circumstances but if we cancel your vacation, except where this is because you have not paid, you can either have a refund or accept a replacement vacation from us of equivalent or similar standard and price, if we are able to offer you one.

If we change your booking details – We hope that we will not have to make any change to your vacation but, because our vacations are planned many months in advance, we sometimes do need to make changes. We reserve the right to do this at any time. We will let you or your travel agent know about any important changes when you book. If you have already booked, we will let you know as soon as we can, if there is time before your departure.

Escorted Drivers:

Irish Tours For You will provide those visitors choosing a Private Chauffeured Tour with a personal driver/guide. The driver will also act as the guide for the duration of the tour. Where numbers dictate, Irish Tours For You will designate a driver and an additional guide. The driver will act as a guide throughout the passage of your vacations. At designated attractions around your vacation, the driver will pass over to the guide at the designated attractions. It should be noted that some attractions are self-guided and each visitor will be expected to self-guide within the attractions as required. The driver/guide will not normally enter the attraction but will wait outside for the visitors to return to the vehicle.

The drivers are allocated to the visitors for eight hours driving per day (an additional hour will be designated within the day for lunch). For the purposes of health and safety the drivers, unless in exceptional circumstances, cannot undertake driving beyond these hours. Driving is defined as a period from the commencement of the tour to the conclusion of the tour for that day and not timed on a basis of continuous driving for eight hours. Irish Tours For You considers the safety of its visitors and staff of paramount importance. The drivers will at all times obey the rules of the road.

Each escorted tour will commence between 9am and 10am each day and run for 9 hours from start. In some circumstances, the tour can start at an earlier or later time but the reasons for the change should be brought to the attention of a member of Irish Tours For You as soon as possible.

Self-Drive Packages:

Your package includes the following: accommodation each night, breakfast each morning having stayed at the accommodation overnight, car rental (car model is not guaranteed) with compulsory insurance, unlimited mileage & breakdown cover, and personal itinerary.

Car rental companies require the main driver to supply a credit card in his/her name in order to pick up the car. A credit card is required for the excess/deductible.

Drivers must hold a current driving license, having been valid for at least 2 years. You must be between 25

– 75 years old. (Minivans and some other vehicles require the driver to be 30 years old or more). Younger and older drivers can be accommodated at an extra charge. Please contact us for details. Location service charge is excluded. If you require additional drivers, fees will apply and are payable direct to the rental desk on arrival.

GPS units are subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed. There is general availability but in the event, the car hire firm cannot provide and payment has been received, the client will receive a full refund for the GPS unit.

Escorted Packages:

These packages include accommodation each night, breakfast each morning, having stayed at the accommodation overnight, Personal guide/driver, luxury vehicle at your disposal throughout your visit, tolls and road fees included, entry to attractions included (all attractions listed in your itinerary are included except those listed under 'at leisure'), guided sightseeing each day, and advice with dining locations.

Paying For Your Travel Arrangements:

You will be required to pay a deposit to us for each person when you book unless this is within 60 days of departure when the full amount of the booking is payable. The deposit amount will be specified by us or your travel agent when your booking is made. If it is not specified then it will be the amount that we ask you to pay when you book, even if this is 100% of the vacation price.

You must pay the final balance due to us, at least 60 days before you arrive in Ireland. If you don't, we reserve the right to treat your booking as canceled and to charge you a cancellation charge up to 100% of the total balance outstanding. Processing fees will be applied to all bookings. Processing fees are payable on the full value of your tour regardless of whether the tour is canceled or not.

If you pay money for your booking to a travel agent appointed by us, they will hold that money as our agent from the time they receive it until they pay the money to us. In cases where there is a large final payment due we may request payment by bank transfer. If your payment is made by credit card a fee will apply, please check fee at the time of booking. We do not accept personal cheques.

If You Change Your Booking:

You must ensure all names and details are entered correctly at the time of booking. You will receive an invoice once your booking is confirmed and must contact us straight away if there is something that you need to correct.

You may transfer your booking to another person, particularly in the event of being unable to travel due to COVID 19 providing the following conditions are met:

- You authorize the change in writing
- The new lead passenger accepts the transfer and the terms of our agreement
- That person complies with the terms of the existing booking
- That person has valid vacation insurance – you cannot transfer your vacation insurance to the new lead passenger.

Please note that more major changes, including but not limited to, traveling later than planned, changes which lower the basic price of your vacation, and changes which result in your vacation ceasing to be a Vacation Package will be treated as a cancellation and incur the appropriate charges.

Please bear in mind that certain accommodation suppliers and other transport providers treat changes as a cancellation and charge accordingly, up to 100% of the cost for that part of the arrangement. Where applicable these charges will be passed on to you.

When changing your vacation details, the price of your new travel arrangements will be based on the price that applies on the day you make the change. These prices may not be the same as when you first made your booking.

Some accommodation is priced according to the number of people staying there. If your party size changes, we'll recalculate your booking cost based on the new number of people going. If fewer people share the accommodation, then the cost per person may go up. This extra cost isn't a cancellation charge, and it isn't normally covered by insurance.

Guide to our cancellation charges:

These charges are based on how many days before your booked departure we receive your cancellation notice, and are a percentage of the total cost of your booking. If you want to cancel one or more passengers on the booking you'll have to pay a proportion of the applicable cancellation charge for those passengers.

Length of time before arrival when Notice of Cancellation is received and percentage lost of total booking price:

60 days or more - Loss of deposit or 25% of tour value (whichever is greater)

59 – 43 days - 30%

42 – 29 days - 60%

28 – 15 days - 90%

14 – 0 days - 100%

Your deposit is non-refundable under all circumstances, even if the cancellation charge calculated is lower than the deposit amount paid. Where extra facilities or transport options are non-refundable, in part or in full, the cost of these will be added to the cancellation charge you have to pay.

Covid-19 Update:

If you cannot travel due to travel restrictions in Ireland or your home country at the time of your tour your deposit will not be forfeited and instead will be made available as a credit for a future trip with no time limit on when to use it. You may also transfer your travel credit to another individual or individuals. This applies to Irish Tours For You tours only and not third party tours.

If you booked using a Low Deposit Offer, the full deposit amount stated on your confirmation invoice will need to be paid upon cancellation.

The cancellation charge may be higher for certain travel arrangements, such as group coach tours.

Refund payments have a 10% handling fee.

These cancellation terms are applied either to complete cancellations or part cancellations of any booking.

Attractions:

Irish Tours For You is not responsible for any attractions that are closed for any reason and therefore not accessible for the visitor.

Irish Tours For You are not responsible for any delays outside their control that cause passengers to miss their flights. Irish Tours For You will make every effort on escorted tours to get passengers to the airport on time but are not responsible for any unexpected delays.

Accommodation :

Any accommodation we arrange for you must only be used by those people named on your confirmation invoice (or on the latest amendment invoice issued). You are not allowed to share the accommodation or let anyone else stay there. You are responsible for the cost of any damage caused to your accommodation or its contents during your stay. These charges must be met by you and may have to be paid locally.
