Complimentary airport transfers will be provided as follows:

- Complimentary transfers are available until 12:00 PM only. Guests arriving this time are kindly requested to arrange their own transportation.

Arrival Day:

- Complimentary transfers will be available throughout the day to accommodate varying flight schedules.

One of Europe's most thrilling capitals, Dublin impresses on every level. Vibrant and energetic, the city pulsates with a compelling mix of cosmopolitan and traditional yet peel back the layers and you'll see that it has managed to maintain its moral essence as a City that is authentically Irish.

Steeped in history and bearing sometimes heartbreaking historical tales from the times of the 1916 Rising, the City can be easily explored on foot, which allows you to immerse yourself entirely as you leisurely wander the streets of Dublin.

Your tour begins in the lobby of your first hotel at 2 pm. From there, you'll make your way with your Driver/Guide to the mighty Guinness Storehouse, where you'll experience the history, heart, and soul of Ireland's most beloved beer.

Explore the story of Guinness' past & present. Then, you'll get to explore Dublin Castle. That evening, enjoy Dinner with your Group and afterwards, head to one of the many bars in Temple Bar, all bursting with engaging characters in search of the 'craic'.

Kerry

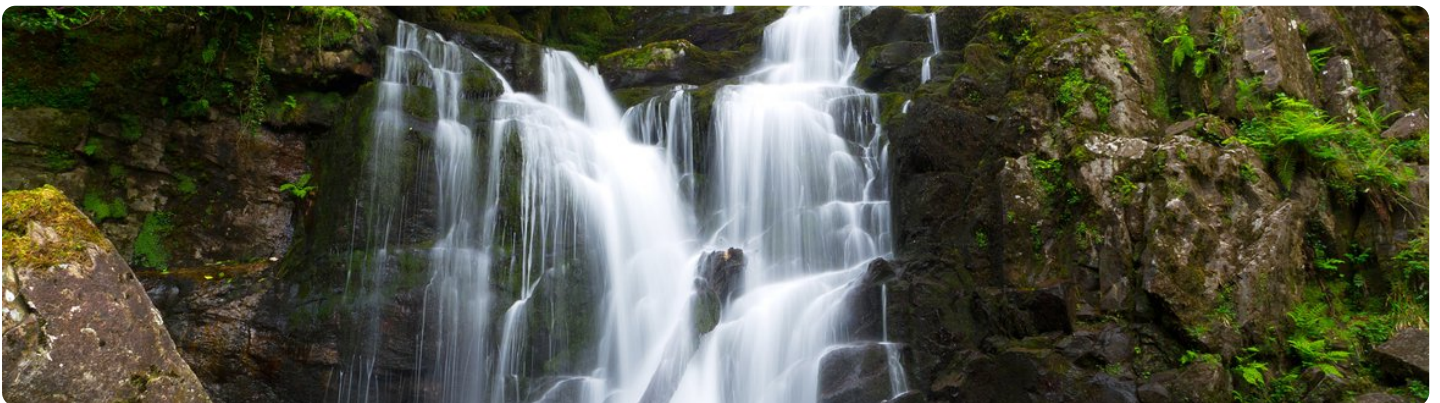

Your plan for Kerry....

- Torc Waterfall
- The Ring of Kerry
- Slea Head Drive
- Dingle Peninsula

Kerry is synonymous with awe-inspiring beauty, steeped in Irish Tradition and bustling with activity. A simple stroll around Killarney town is a must. Ensure you allow ample time to enjoy the Ring of Kerry, stopping at it's many vantage points to soak in the stunning scenery. Navigate the sheep dotted around the winding roads! Irish music and dance are alive and flourishing in all regions of Kerry but Dingle town in particular.

Torc Waterfall Torc Waterfall Torc Waterfall, Ireland

Torc Waterfall is approximately 7 kilometres from Killarney Town and approx 2.5 kilometres from the motor entrance to Muckross House and is signposted from a carpark off the N71. A short walk of approx 200 metres brings you to the waterfall. From that point steps lead to another viewing point at a higher altitude that provides a view over the Middle Lake. The path is also part of the Kerry Way long distance walking route and a starting point for circular walking routes which are indicated by a map down at the start of the trail beside the car park. The waterfall which is approximately 20 metres high is at its best after heavy rainfall. Across the road from the car park jaunting cars can be hired for a trip to Muckross House

Ring of Kerry

Ring of Kerry

Ring of Kerry Ireland

Rolling green hills and sparkling lakes. Sheep bleating and cows grazing in patchwork fields. Pristine golden strands giving way to jaw-dropping cliffs. This treasure trove in the southwest coast of Ireland really has it all, which is why people come from far and wide to see the Ring of Kerry. This scene-stealing route around the Iveragh Peninsula, beginning and ending in Killarney, takes in all the big hitters – Moll's Gap, Torc Waterfall and the Gap of Dunloe are winners – but really, the route itself is so much more than the sum of its parts. Within this 179km of road, you'll find that each turn brings a new treat to the eye, from lakes, rivers and waterfalls, to grand houses and castles. If you're feeling adventurous, the Ring of Kerry cycling route is one of Ireland's most famous, and there is really nothing like breathing in the fresh Kerry air as you drink up the incredible views around you. This part of County Kerry is known for its pristine stretches of white, sandy beaches. Derrynane, Rossbeigh and St Finian's Bay are some of the most stunning, each strand a beautiful border between the glinting ocean and mountains of the Iveragh Peninsula. There's a story behind the stunning "Ladies View" at the Lakes of Killarney – when Queen Victoria visited the Ring of Kerry in 1861, this spot was a favourite of her ladies-in-waiting. And the grandeur doesn't stop at the scenery: sleeping on the edges of the world-famous lakes sits Muckross House & Gardens. This 19th century mansion, along with its lush gardens, became Ireland's first National Park in 1932. Inside is luxury on another level, and upstairs you can even enter the perfectly preserved room that housed Queen Victoria during her famous stay!

Slea Head Drive Ireland

Slea Head Drive, one of Ireland's most scenic routes, takes you on a journey through historic sites, Irish speaking villages, famous Hollywood film locations with close up views of the world renowned Blasket Islands and distant views of the Skellig Islands on the south western horizon. The Slea Head Drive (Slí Cheann Sléibhe) is a circular route, forming part of the Wild Atlantic Way, beginning and ending in Dingle, that takes in a large number of attractions and stunning views on the western end of the Dingle Peninsula. The route is clearly labelled by road signs throughout its length. The Slea Head Route is most enjoyable when done slowly over a number of hours or days allowing time for the many interesting stops and detours along the way. A minimum of a half-day should be set aside for the journey. Travellers are strongly advised to travel clockwise in order to avoid meeting the large tour buses that frequent the route during the summer. Part of the Sleah Head cliff road is very narrow and single lane only. The route is suitable for motorists, but is also enjoyed by cyclists - bicycles can be hired at a number of locations in Dingle.

Adare – Ireland's Heritage Village

Adare

Tucked away in County Limerick, Adare is a timeless village where history and culture come alive. Established in the 13th century, it's famed for its thatched cottages, medieval ruins, and a strong sense of heritage that still resonates today.

Wander through charming streets lined with craft shops, art galleries, and antique stores. Experience live traditional Irish music, play a round of golf, or try something different like falconry or archery. To truly connect with the village's past, join a guided heritage walking tour or simply explore the scenic surroundings at your own pace.

In Adare, every corner tells a story—just waiting to be discovered.

Clare

Clare

Your plan for Clare....

- Adare Village and its wonderful thatched cottages (Limerick)
- Cliffs of Moher
- O'Brien's Tower

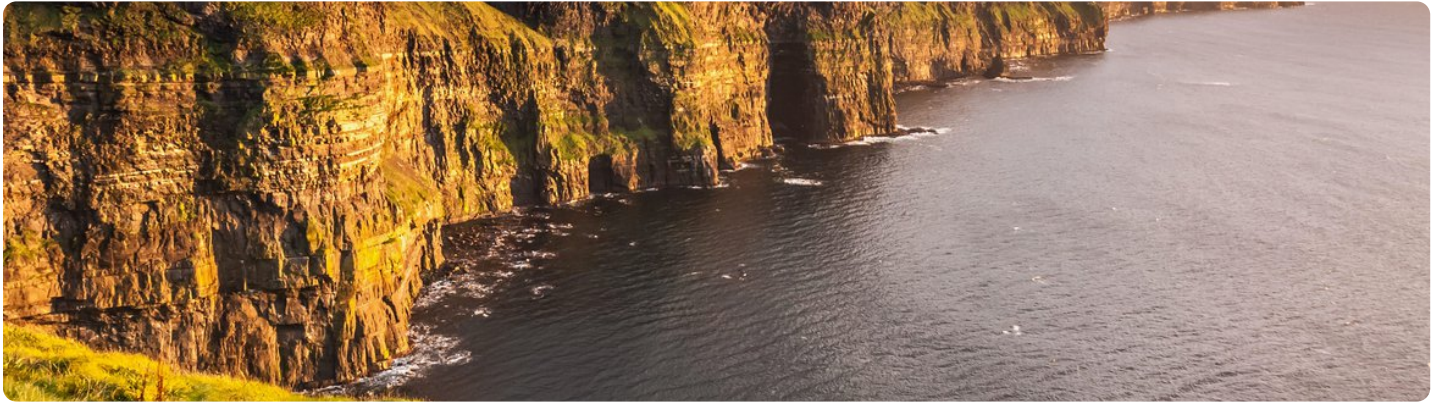

Situated in the mid-west region of Ireland - Clare is one of the most picturesque counties in Ireland. Clare often epitomizes 'authentic Ireland' and a slower pace of life with the added beauty of stunning cliffs and luscious landscapes! Devote your time in Clare to sightseeing some of the most beautiful scenery Ireland you'll experience on your travels.

Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre

Cliffs of Moher

Cliffs of Moher - Visitor Center, Liscannor V95 KN9T, Ireland

One of Ireland's favourite visitor experiences, the Cliffs of Moher tower over the rugged west Clare coast. Walk the safe, paved pathways and view the famous Cliffs on Europe's western frontier and enjoy the spectacular vistas over the Atlantic Ocean and the Aran Islands. Their natural beauty has inspired artists, musicians, and poets for generations, as well as absorbing scientists and geologists, drawn by the unique landscape in which they sit. The Cliffs of Moher, the most famous cliffs in Ireland, will leave you awestruck, creating memories that will stay with you forever.

The Visitor Centre, itself sculpted from the landscape, hosts informative and entertaining permanent exhibits in its extensive gallery space and auditorium.

Visit the on-site theatre and experience an exhilarating virtual-reality cliff-face adventure.

The Cliffs of Moher has featured in classic movies like The Princess Bride and Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince.

The Cliffs of Moher was a 'tourist attraction' before that phrase was even heard of. In the early 19th century, the then landowner, Cornelius O'Brien, parliamentarian, and proud Clare man, built O'Brien's Tower so that the expansive cliff views across the Atlantic Ocean from Liscannor Bay to Galway Bay could be fully appreciated. This paved the way for today's centre to be the top visitor attraction in Ireland and on the Wild Atlantic Way.

It is now part of the Burren and Cliffs of Moher UNESCO Global Geopark supporting sustainable tourism and has been a special protected area for birds and wildlife since 1979, home to 35 different species of birds. Cliffs of Moher Visitor Experience is a proud member of the Burren Ecotourism Network. See for yourself what has drawn people for over two centuries, it will stir your senses and fill your soul.

Admission includes access to all areas, secure car parking, wi-fi, access to the interactive Cliffs exhibition and water refill stations. In addition, there are two cafes, a craft & gift store and a craft and retail street on the left as you walk out of visitor centre, toilets, first aid centre, information points, baggage storage, free app and audio guide. Binoculars and picnic blankets available on request and "lifts of Moher" mobility vehicle. Admission price contributes to conservation of the area.

O'Brien's Tower

O'Brien's Tower

O'Brien's Tower stands on a headland at the Cliffs of Moher offering up magnificent views south towards Hags Head and north towards Doolin. The Tower was built in 1835 by Cornelius O'Brien, a descendant of Brian Boru, the first High King of Ireland. A local landowner, Cornelius was ahead of his time and believed that the development of tourism would benefit the local economy and help bring local people out of poverty.

The tower was used as an observation tower for the hundreds of visitors who even then came to the Cliffs each year to see the breathtaking views. On a clear day you can see across to the Aran Islands: Inis Oírr, Inis Méain and Inis Mór. Looking to the left you capture the whole of Liscannor Bay with Lahinch in the distance and Liscannor village in the foreground. Looking to the right you are met with beautiful views of Galway Bay. Entry to O'Brien's Tower is included in admission ticket to the Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre and expert guides are available to illuminate the story of the tower.

Loop Head Drive

Loop Head

Loop Head, Ireland

Loop Head, a slender finger of land pointing out to sea from the most westerly point of County Clare, right in the middle of the Wild Atlantic Way. The Loop Head Peninsula epitomizes what the Wild Atlantic Way is about: panoramic cliff views, abundant local seafood, your choice of activities on water and land and plenty of quiet beauty spots where you can pause and wonder at this unforgettable part of the world. It has the ocean on one side and the largest estuary in Ireland on the other. The fresh air, quietness and vibrant nature will give you an experience of the real Ireland. Heritage and culture seep from each bog road or bóithrín (boreen). And people’s spirits are full of music, dance and laughter. This is the heart of the Wild Atlantic Way. Dinner @ McGann's Pub & Bistro

McGann's Pub & Restaurant

McGann's Pub & Restaurant, Main Street, Teergonean, Roadford, Ireland

Nestled in the charming village of Doolin, County Clare, McGann's Pub is a beloved spot for locals and visitors alike. Known for its welcoming atmosphere, lively traditional music sessions, and hearty food, McGann's has earned its place as one of the top pubs in Ireland. It’s not just the food and drink that draw people in, but also the sense of community and the rich history of the pub itself, which has been a staple of Doolin since 1965. The pub is also a welcoming spot for travelers heading to the nearby Cliffs of Moher, providing hearty meals, local beers, and, of course, a pint of Guinness.

A fun trivia tidbit: McGann's Pub is a key part of Doolin's music scene, which has earned the village its reputation as the “traditional music capital of Ireland.” The pub, along with others in the village, has helped keep traditional Irish music alive for generations, attracting music lovers from around the world. If you're lucky, you might even hear a spontaneous session start up as soon as the mood strikes!

The pub also features a cozy, rustic setting with stone walls and wooden beams, creating the perfect atmosphere to relax with a drink while soaking in the sights and sounds of the Doolin countryside. Whether you're there for a meal, a pint, or an unforgettable music session, McGann's Pub is sure to provide a memorable Irish pub experience.

Midlands Athlone

Suggested Highlight

- Sean's Bar

▮ Earning the title of The Oldest Pub In Ireland, and perhaps soon The Oldest Pub in the World, Sean's Bar's history is a fascinating tale. Sean's Bar has a detailed and documented history right back to 900AD. During renovations in 1970, the walls of the bar were found to be made of "wattle and wicker" dating back to the ninth century. Old coins which were minted by various landlords for barter with their customers were also found. The walls and the coins are on display in the National Museum. One section remains on display in the pub.

Midlands Whiskey Experience Sean's Bar Sean's Bar, 13 Main Street, Athlone N37 DW76, Ireland

Situated in the Heart of Ireland, halfway between Dublin and Galway, Sean's Bar is part of the life and soul of Athlone, Co. Westmeath.

Sean's plays host to visitors from all around the world. Whether absorbing the history, listening to music, visiting with friends and family, or simply enjoying the perfect pint, the appeal is equally strong for everyone. Listed in both "25 of the Most Incredible Bars in the World" and "50 Bars to Blow Your Mind" by Lonely Planet, a visit to Sean's is a must! Even more amazing, Sean's Bar was officially recognised by the Guinness Book of Records as Ireland's Oldest Pub. Find out more about why Sean's is not only the oldest, but one of the best-loved pubs in world.

Kildare

Kildare

Your plan for your final day....

- Midlands
 - Sean's Bar

A county rich in heritage and wrapped in myth, Kildare is a quiet but powerful close to your Irish journey. Home to ancient legends, sacred sites, and lush landscapes, it invites reflection and a deeper connection to Ireland's spiritual and cultural roots. Whether you explore the story of St. Brigid, discover equestrian elegance at the National Stud, or simply take in the peaceful countryside, this final chapter is full of quiet moments and grounding experiences.

End your journey with a calm walk through the fields or a pause at a sacred well, allowing the energy of Ireland's ancient heart to stay with you. It's the kind of goodbye that feels more like a gentle promise—you'll be back.

Dinner @ Arkle Bar & Restaurant

Glenroyal Hotel & Leisure Club

Glenroyal Hotel & Leisure Club, Straffan Road, Maynooth W23 C2V1, Ireland

Welcome to the newly refurbished Arkle Bar, featuring cosy plush 1920s decor alongside photos and artwork of the great Irish racing legend, Arkle. Arkle (19 April 1957 – 31 May 1970) was an Irish bay gelding thoroughbred racehorse. He was known to have a great way with people and stole the hearts of many across the world. Because of Kildare being famous for its many horse racecourses, we've named our hotel bar after its most famous horse who was known to be extremely gentle, full of old charm, and great spirit. Arkle Bar & Restaurant offers guests a variety of culinary experiences. We use the finest, freshest locally grown produce, premium quality, free-range meats and the freshest seafood from the island of Ireland. Each dish is freshly prepared and cooked and is a dedication to our promise to use only the best quality ingredients.

Within Arkle Bar, you'll find The Enclosure Restaurant and The Terrace at Arkle. The Enclosure at Arkle offers an upscale and intimate raised dining area with dark and light oak timber finishes, luxurious velvet fabrics and brass decorative lighting. Elegant and thoughtfully planned modern menus make The Enclosure is perfect for for all occasions. The Terrace at Arkle is a beautifully decorated outdoor space located just off the entrance to Arkle Bar. With it's gorgeous floral-inspired design, retractable roof and cosy heaters, it's the perfect spot to wine and dine al-fresco style, even in the cooler months. Available for intimate gatherings and private bookings.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please note that Irish Tours For You Limited terms and conditions are subject to and governed by Irish Law. It is the responsibility of each client of Irish Tours For You to read the terms and conditions of your booking. Your booking is bound by these terms.

Irish Tours For You is an incoming tour operator which means we are a 'land only' service. Irish Tours For You are not responsible for passenger travel into or out of Ireland. We cannot be responsible for any delays, cancellations or other hindrances of passage to Ireland.

Your Travel Booking:

Whether you book alone or as a group, we will only deal with the lead booking name in all subsequent correspondence, including changes, amendments and cancellations. You must be 18 years old at the time of booking and possess the legal capacity and authority to book as the lead name and travel on vacation with us.

You are responsible for ensuring the accuracy of the personal details or any other information supplied in respect of yourself and any other person traveling on the booking and for passing on any information regarding the booking or any changes made in relation thereto, to all persons traveling on such booking, including but not limited to information on schedule changes or copies of booking confirmations.

When you (or a party making the booking on your behalf such as a Travel Agent) ask for your booking to be confirmed, we will confirm the booking, and set aside your chosen accommodation (or similar when your chosen accommodation is not available). Next, we will send you or your travel agent a confirmation. We may not be able to confirm some of our ground arrangements straight away. If there is any change to any of the details discussed at the time of booking, we will notify you promptly of any new or changed details, including a change to the total price (if any).

If any detail on the confirmation invoice is not correct tell us or your travel agent immediately. If there is an obvious error on the confirmation invoice we reserve the right to correct it as soon as we become aware of it.

Insurance:

It is a condition of your booking with us that you and all other members of your party, including infants and children, are adequately insured on vacation. Any person who is under 18 years old must be accompanied by an adult on his/her journey. There may be other restrictions and conditions on some offers.

Irish Tours For You are not responsible for any personal injury, property damage or loss a guest incurs arising from acts or omissions by any hotel or other organization. Irish Tours For You accepts no responsibility for cancellations of or interruptions to a tour due to delay or changes in schedules, flight cancellations, sickness, weather, strikes, war, quarantine, mechanical breakdowns, the actions of any government, weather, acts of God (including COVID 19 and any subsequent variants that arise) or circumstances beyond its control or for expenses or losses incurred as a result of any such circumstances. To guard against such unforeseen circumstances, you should have a travel insurance plan before you travel on your vacation - we strongly recommend that you purchase insurance as soon as your booking is confirmed with us.

Price:

All prices we advertise are accurate at the date published, but we reserve the right to change any of those prices from time to time.

If we cancel your booking in circumstances such as, for example, there are not enough people booked on your vacation or you do not pay the balance of the vacation price on time, we may cancel it. We reserve the right to cancel your vacation in any circumstances but if we cancel your vacation, except where this is because you have not paid, you can either have a refund or accept a replacement vacation from us of equivalent or similar standard and price, if we are able to offer you one.

If we change your booking details – We hope that we will not have to make any change to your vacation but, because our vacations are planned many months in advance, we sometimes do need to make changes. We reserve the right to do this at any time. We will let you or your travel agent know about any important changes when you book. If you have already booked, we will let you know as soon as we can, if there is time before your departure.

Escorted Drivers:

Irish Tours For You will provide those visitors choosing a Private Chauffeured Tour with a personal driver/guide. The driver will also act as the guide for the duration of the tour. Where numbers dictate, Irish Tours For You will designate a driver and an additional guide. The driver will act as a guide throughout the passage of your vacations. At designated attractions around your vacation, the driver will pass over to the guide at the designated attractions. It should be noted that some attractions are self-guided and each visitor will be expected to self-guide within the attractions as required. The driver/guide will not normally enter the attraction but will wait outside for the visitors to return to the vehicle.

The drivers are allocated to the visitors for eight hours driving per day (an additional hour will be designated within the day for lunch). For the purposes of health and safety the drivers, unless in exceptional circumstances, cannot undertake driving beyond these hours. Driving is defined as a period from the commencement of the tour to the conclusion of the tour for that day and not timed on a basis of continuous driving for eight hours. Irish Tours For You considers the safety of its visitors and staff of paramount importance. The drivers will at all times obey the rules of the road.

Each escorted tour will commence between 9am and 10am each day and run for 9 hours from start. In some circumstances, the tour can start at an earlier or later time but the reasons for the change should be brought to the attention of a member of Irish Tours For You as soon as possible.

Self-Drive Packages:

Your package includes the following: accommodation each night, breakfast each morning having stayed at the accommodation overnight, car rental (car model is not guaranteed) with compulsory insurance, unlimited mileage & breakdown cover, and personal itinerary.

Car rental companies require the main driver to supply a credit card in his/her name in order to pick up the car. A credit card is required for the excess/deductible.

Drivers must hold a current driving license, having been valid for at least 2 years. You must be between 25

– 75 years old. (Minivans and some other vehicles require the driver to be 30 years old or more). Younger and older drivers can be accommodated at an extra charge. Please contact us for details. Location service charge is excluded. If you require additional drivers, fees will apply and are payable direct to the rental desk on arrival.

GPS units are subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed. There is general availability but in the event, the car hire firm cannot provide and payment has been received, the client will receive a full refund for the GPS unit.

Escorted Packages:

These packages include accommodation each night, breakfast each morning, having stayed at the accommodation overnight, Personal guide/driver, luxury vehicle at your disposal throughout your visit, tolls and road fees included, entry to attractions included (all attractions listed in your itinerary are included except those listed under 'at leisure'), guided sightseeing each day, and advice with dining locations.

Paying For Your Travel Arrangements:

You will be required to pay a deposit to us for each person when you book unless this is within 60 days of departure when the full amount of the booking is payable. The deposit amount will be specified by us or your travel agent when your booking is made. If it is not specified then it will be the amount that we ask you to pay when you book, even if this is 100% of the vacation price.

You must pay the final balance due to us, at least 60 days before you arrive in Ireland. If you don't, we reserve the right to treat your booking as canceled and to charge you a cancellation charge up to 100% of the total balance outstanding. Processing fees will be applied to all bookings. Processing fees are payable on the full value of your tour regardless of whether the tour is canceled or not.

If you pay money for your booking to a travel agent appointed by us, they will hold that money as our agent from the time they receive it until they pay the money to us. In cases where there is a large final payment due we may request payment by bank transfer. If your payment is made by credit card a fee will apply, please check fee at the time of booking. We do not accept personal cheques.

If You Change Your Booking:

You must ensure all names and details are entered correctly at the time of booking. You will receive an invoice once your booking is confirmed and must contact us straight away if there is something that you need to correct.

You may transfer your booking to another person, particularly in the event of being unable to travel due to COVID 19 providing the following conditions are met:

- You authorize the change in writing
- The new lead passenger accepts the transfer and the terms of our agreement
- That person complies with the terms of the existing booking
- That person has valid vacation insurance – you cannot transfer your vacation insurance to the new lead passenger.

Please note that more major changes, including but not limited to, traveling later than planned, changes which lower the basic price of your vacation, and changes which result in your vacation ceasing to be a Vacation Package will be treated as a cancellation and incur the appropriate charges.

Please bear in mind that certain accommodation suppliers and other transport providers treat changes as a cancellation and charge accordingly, up to 100% of the cost for that part of the arrangement. Where applicable these charges will be passed on to you.

When changing your vacation details, the price of your new travel arrangements will be based on the price that applies on the day you make the change. These prices may not be the same as when you first made your booking.

Some accommodation is priced according to the number of people staying there. If your party size changes, we'll recalculate your booking cost based on the new number of people going. If fewer people share the accommodation, then the cost per person may go up. This extra cost isn't a cancellation charge, and it isn't normally covered by insurance.

Guide to our cancellation charges:

These charges are based on how many days before your booked departure we receive your cancellation notice, and are a percentage of the total cost of your booking. If you want to cancel one or more passengers on the booking you'll have to pay a proportion of the applicable cancellation charge for those passengers.

Length of time before arrival when Notice of Cancellation is received and percentage lost of total booking price:

60 days or more - Loss of deposit or 25% of tour value (whichever is greater)

59 – 43 days - 30%

42 – 29 days - 60%

28 – 15 days - 90%

14 – 0 days - 100%

Your deposit is non-refundable under all circumstances, even if the cancellation charge calculated is lower than the deposit amount paid. Where extra facilities or transport options are non-refundable, in part or in full, the cost of these will be added to the cancellation charge you have to pay.

Covid-19 Update:

If you cannot travel due to travel restrictions in Ireland or your home country at the time of your tour your deposit will not be forfeited and instead will be made available as a credit for a future trip with no time limit on when to use it. You may also transfer your travel credit to another individual or individuals. This applies to Irish Tours For You tours only and not third party tours.

If you booked using a Low Deposit Offer, the full deposit amount stated on your confirmation invoice will need to be paid upon cancellation.

The cancellation charge may be higher for certain travel arrangements, such as group coach tours.

Refund payments have a 10% handling fee.

These cancellation terms are applied either to complete cancellations or part cancellations of any booking.

Attractions:

Irish Tours For You is not responsible for any attractions that are closed for any reason and therefore not accessible for the visitor.

Irish Tours For You are not responsible for any delays outside their control that cause passengers to miss their flights. Irish Tours For You will make every effort on escorted tours to get passengers to the airport on time but are not responsible for any unexpected delays.

Accommodation :

Any accommodation we arrange for you must only be used by those people named on your confirmation invoice (or on the latest amendment invoice issued). You are not allowed to share the accommodation or let anyone else stay there. You are responsible for the cost of any damage caused to your accommodation or its contents during your stay. These charges must be met by you and may have to be paid locally.
