- Departure Day: Complimentary transfers will be available throughout the day to accommodate varying flight schedules.

One of Europe's most thrilling capitals, Dublin impresses on every level. Vibrant and energetic; the city pulsates with a compelling mix of cosmopolitan and traditional yet, peel back the layers and you'll see that it has managed to maintain its moral essence as a City that is authentically Irish.

Steeped in history and bearing sometimes heartbreaking historical tales from the times of the 1916 Rising, the City can be easily explored by foot which allows you to immerse yourself entirely as you leisurely wander the streets of Dublin.

Your tour begins in the lobby of your first hotel at 2pm. From there, you'll make your way with your Driver/Guide to the mighty Guinness Storehouse where you'll experience the history, heart, and soul of Ireland's most beloved beer.

Explore the story of Guinness past & present. Then, you'll get to explore Dublin Castle. That evening, enjoy Dinner with your Group and afterwards, head to one of the many bars in Temple Bar, all bursting with engaging characters in search of the 'craic'.

Places you'll see or pass by:

The General Post Office
The Church Bar and cafe
Italian Quarter
The Millennium Bridge & the River Liffey
Meeting House Square, Temple Bar
Smock Alley Theatre
Christ Church Cathedral
Dublin Castle
City Hall

This exceptional 2-hour tour is the best introduction to the richness the city has to offer. It takes in many of Dublin's icons and guides you to some wonderful hidden spots too. If you are looking for a relatively comprehensive tour that gives you the best taste of the city centre on both sides of the River Liffey then this is the tour for you!

Starting from O'Connell Street the tour will finish close to Trinity College. On this gentle walk you will encounter many of the famous Dublin sites such as the General Post Office, Dublin Castle and Christ Church Cathedral among others. All these places certainly have their interesting pasts but the human stories associated with them often capture more than just their eventful histories. Their dedicated guides will share their love for the city with you and make you feel like a true Dubliner.

To crown all this, the tour will also introduce you to many secret gems and surprises that visitors and even Dubliners often miss. Find Dublin's first but now defunct full-time cinema, a church that's not a church, a former Lisbon tram now serving as a café. Discover an amusing representation of a da Vinci painting, feel the bounce of a wobbly bridge and enjoy the tale of a post-box that represents Ireland's transition to independence. And not forgetting a naked 18th century composer!

Visit County Wicklow, a place with endless natural beauty and captivating history. See one of our most important monastic sites in Glendalough and learn about St Kevin who lived and worked here. Follow in his footsteps as you walk the trails and see panoramic views of Glendalough's Lakes.

Powerscourt Waterfall is one of the most unique places in Ireland. At any time of year, you can watch water cascade down the rocky outcrop of Ireland's biggest waterfall. It's a must-see when in County Wicklow.

Glendalough Monastic Site and Visitor Centre

Glendalough Visitor Centre

A98 HC80, A98 HC80, Ireland

In a stunning glaciated valley in County Wicklow, in the sixth century, one of Ireland's most revered saints founded a monastery. The foundation of St Kevin at Glendalough became one of the most famous religious centres in Europe.

The remains of this ‘Monastic City’, which are dotted across the glen, include a superb round tower, numerous medieval stone churches and some decorated crosses. Of particular note is St Kevin’s Bed, a small man-made cave in the cliff face above the Upper Lake. It is said that St Kevin lived and prayed there, but it may actually be a prehistoric burial place that far predates him.

Learn all about this hallowed place in the fine interpretive centre before exploring the site for yourself. If you do, you will be rewarded with spectacular views of the two lakes and a uniquely spiritual atmosphere. Granville Hotel (1 night)

Granville Hotel, Meagher's Quay, Waterford, Ireland

The Granville Hotel Waterford overlooks the waterfront & marina in the heart of Waterford City's business & shopping centre.

The Granville Hotel, Waterford City is the birthplace of Thomas Francis Meagher, the man responsible for the Irish National Flag. The Granville Hotel building dates back to the 1700's and has played a predominant role in Waterford's rich history.

The hotel was purchased in 1979 by Liam and Ann Cusack and restored to its former gracious grandeur, combining modern comfort with olde worlde charm and elegance. Still a family run hotel, this passion and commitment shows in our high standards of quality and service. The Cusack family second generation Fiona, Jackie and Sandra now continue to uphold the Granville traditions of comfort, service and hospitality.

The Rock of Cashel

Rock of Cashel

Rock of Cashel, St. Patrick's Rock of Cashel, Cashel E25 KX44, Ireland

Set on a dramatic outcrop of limestone in the Golden Vale, the Rock of Cashel, iconic in its historic significance, possesses the most impressive cluster of medieval buildings in Ireland. Among the monuments to be found there is a round tower, a high cross, a Romanesque chapel, a Gothic cathedral, an abbey, the Hall of the Vicars Choral and a fifteenth-century Tower House.

Originally the seat of the kings of Munster, according to legend St. Patrick himself came here to convert King Aenghus to Christianity. Brian Boru was crowned High King at Cashel in 978 and made it his capital.

In 1101 the site was granted to the church and Cashel swiftly rose to prominence as one of the most significant centres of ecclesiastical power in the country.

The surviving buildings are remarkable. Cormac's Chapel, for example, contains the only surviving Romanesque frescoes in Ireland.

The Rock of Cashel is one of Ireland's most spectacular and – deservedly – most visited tourist attractions.

You are invited to step back in time on Molly's traditional farm, enjoy the animals while soaking in the history. Molly's farm is typical of a small holding of land, rented from the local landlord. Large families were expected to eke out a living from a few acres of often poor land. Molly would have set up to an acre of potatoes to feed her family. She would have also reared pigs, cows, hens and chickens along with a donkey for doing the work around the farm. The Farm has changed little since Molly's time and is a reminder of harsh times endured by our ancestors.

Ring of Kerry

Ring of Kerry

Ring of Kerry Ireland

Rolling green hills and sparkling lakes. Sheep bleating and cows grazing in patchwork fields. Pristine golden strands giving way to jaw-dropping cliffs. This treasure trove in the southwest coast of Ireland really has it all, which is why people come from far and wide to see the Ring of Kerry.

This scene-stealing route around the Iveragh Peninsula, beginning and ending in Killarney, takes in all the big hitters – Moll's Gap, Torc Waterfall and the Gap of Dunloe are winners – but really, the route itself is so much more than the sum of its parts. Within this 179km of road, you'll find that each turn brings a new treat to the eye, from lakes, rivers and waterfalls, to grand houses and castles. If you're feeling adventurous, the Ring of Kerry cycling route is one of Ireland's most famous, and there is really nothing like breathing in the fresh Kerry air as you drink up the incredible views around you.

This part of County Kerry is known for its pristine stretches of white, sandy beaches. Derrynane, Rossbeigh and St Finian's Bay are some of the most stunning, each strand a beautiful border between the glinting ocean and mountains of the Iveragh Peninsula.

There's a story behind the stunning "Ladies View" at the Lakes of Killarney – when Queen Victoria visited the Ring of Kerry in 1861, this spot was a favourite of her ladies-in-waiting. And the grandeur doesn't stop at the scenery: sleeping on the edges of the world-famous lakes sits Muckross House & Gardens. This 19th century mansion, along with its lush gardens, became Ireland's first National Park in 1932. Inside is luxury on another level, and upstairs you can even enter the perfectly preserved room that housed Queen Victoria during her famous stay!

Dingle Peninsula

Dingle Peninsula

Dingle Peninsula, Ireland

The Dingle Peninsula, on Ireland's southwest Atlantic coast, is ringed by sandy beaches and craggy cliffs. Inland are rolling hills and mountains, including 952m Mount Brandon. The region's an officially recognised bastion of Irish language and culture. Dunmore Head, mainland Ireland's easternmost point, has views of the Blasket Islands, famous for Irish-language memoirs documenting rural life in the 1800s and 1900s.

Slea Head Drive

Slea Head Drive

Slea Head Drive Ireland

Slea Head Drive, one of Ireland's most scenic routes, takes you on a journey through historic sites, Irish speaking villages, famous Hollywood film locations with close up views of the world renowned Blasket Islands and distant views of the Skellig Islands on the south western horizon. The Slea Head Drive (Slí Cheann Sléibhe) is a circular route, forming part of the Wild Atlantic Way, beginning and ending in Dingle, that takes in a large number of attractions and stunning views on the western end of the Dingle Peninsula. The route is clearly labelled by road signs throughout its length. The Slea Head Route is most enjoyable when done slowly over a number of hours or days allowing time for the many interesting stops and detours along the way. A minimum of a half-day should be set aside for the journey. Travellers are strongly advised to travel clockwise in order to avoid meeting the large tour buses that frequent the route during the summer. Part of the Sleah Head cliff road is very narrow and single lane only. The route is suitable for motorists, but is also enjoyed by cyclists - bicycles can be hired at a number of locations in Dingle.

Adare – Ireland's Heritage Village

Adare

Tucked away in County Limerick, Adare is a timeless village where history and culture come alive. Established in the 13th century, it's famed for its thatched cottages, medieval ruins, and a strong sense of heritage that still resonates today.

Wander through charming streets lined with craft shops, art galleries, and antique stores. Experience live traditional Irish music, play a round of golf, or try something different like falconry or archery. To truly connect with the village's past, join a guided heritage walking tour or simply explore the scenic surroundings at your own pace.

In Adare, every corner tells a story—just waiting to be discovered.

Clare

Clare

Your plan for Clare....

Please note that some of the suggested highlights below are not part of the tour package; they are simply provided as an idea or preview of some of the attractions you might enjoy in the location. These are just a few options you could consider if you have extra time or wish to explore more of Clare!

- Adare Village and its wonderful thatched cottages (Limerick)
- Cliffs of Moher
- O'Brien's Tower

Situated in the mid-west region of Ireland - Clare is one of the most picturesque counties in Ireland. Clare often epitomizes 'authentic Ireland' and a slower pace of life with the added beauty of stunning cliffs and luscious landscapes! Devote your time in Clare to sightseeing some of the most beautiful scenery Ireland you'll experience on your travels.

Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre

Cliffs of Moher

Cliffs of Moher - Visitor Center, Liscannor V95 KN9T, Ireland

One of Ireland's favourite visitor experiences, the Cliffs of Moher tower over the rugged west Clare coast. Walk the safe, paved pathways and view the famous Cliffs on Europe's western frontier and enjoy the spectacular vistas over the Atlantic Ocean and the Aran Islands. Their natural beauty has inspired artists, musicians, and poets for generations, as well as absorbing scientists and geologists, drawn by the unique landscape in which they sit. The Cliffs of Moher, the most famous cliffs in Ireland, will leave you awestruck, creating memories that will stay with you forever.

The Visitor Centre, itself sculpted from the landscape, hosts informative and entertaining permanent exhibits in its extensive gallery space and auditorium.

Visit the on-site theatre and experience an exhilarating virtual-reality cliff-face adventure.

The Cliffs of Moher has featured in classic movies like The Princess Bride and Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince.

The Cliffs of Moher was a 'tourist attraction' before that phrase was even heard of. In the early 19th century, the then landowner, Cornelius O'Brien, parliamentarian, and proud Clare man, built O'Brien's Tower so that the expansive cliff views across the Atlantic Ocean from Liscannor Bay to Galway Bay could be fully appreciated. This paved the way for today's centre to be the top visitor attraction in Ireland and on the Wild Atlantic Way.

It is now part of the Burren and Cliffs of Moher UNESCO Global Geopark supporting sustainable tourism and has been a special protected area for birds and wildlife since 1979, home to 35 different species of birds. Cliffs of Moher Visitor Experience is a proud member of the Burren Ecotourism Network. See for yourself what has drawn people for over two centuries, it will stir your senses and fill your soul.

Admission includes access to all areas, secure car parking, wi-fi, access to the interactive Cliffs exhibition and water refill stations. In addition, there are two cafes, a craft & gift store and a craft and retail street on the left as you walk out of visitor centre, toilets, first aid centre, information points, baggage storage, free app and audio guide. Binoculars and picnic blankets available on request and “lifts of Moher” mobility vehicle. Admission price contributes to conservation of the area.

Dan O'Hara's Homestead Farm

Dan O'Hara's Homestead Farm

Dan O'Hara's Homestead Farm, Clifden, Ireland

The guided tours of the tractor drawn carriages take visitors on a 2 km journey through the Centre where you get to a hilltop view. Rising to 300 meters above sea level where you have a bird's eye view of the largest blanket bog in Europe, dotted by over 100 lakes and a view to the Atlantic Ocean. Then the tour take you to the turf cutting demonstration, where on long summer days people used to spent back-breaking work cutting out the turf spreading & footing it for the 8 weeks, bringing it home with the donkey and baskets in order to have fuel for the long winter months. Try your hand at cutting the turf. Then the guided tours take you to the cottage of Dan O'Hara, the legend who lived here up until 1845 with his wife ad seven children, totally self-sufficient on a mere 8 acres of marginal land depending mostly on the potato crop, milk, eggs, chicken, fish and wildlife which abounded in abundance at the time. But things were hard back then, and the landlord with his exorbitant rents made it an impossible task. By 1845 Dan O'Hara was evicted due to non-payment of rent. He emigrated to America where his wife and 3 of his children died on the long sea journey. Listen to the whole story told in his cottage now restored.

Dinner @ Arkle Bar & Restaurant

Glenroyal Hotel & Leisure Club
Glenroyal Hotel & Leisure Club, Straffan Road, Maynooth W23 C2V1, Ireland

Welcome to the newly refurbished Arkle Bar, featuring cosy plush 1920s decor alongside photos and artwork of the great Irish racing legend, Arkle. Arkle (19 April 1957 – 31 May 1970) was an Irish bay gelding thoroughbred racehorse. He was known to have a great way with people and stole the hearts of many across the world. Because of Kildare being famous for its many horse racecourses, we’ve named our hotel bar after its most famous horse who was known to be extremely gentle, full of old charm, and great spirit. Arkle Bar & Restaurant offers guests a variety of culinary experiences. We use the finest, freshest locally grown produce, premium quality, free-range meats and the freshest seafood from the island of Ireland. Each dish is freshly prepared and cooked and is a dedication to our promise to use only the best quality ingredients.

Within Arkle Bar, you'll find The Enclosure Restaurant and The Terrace at Arkle. The Enclosure at Arkle offers an upscale and intimate raised dining area with dark and light oak timber finishes, luxurious velvet fabrics and brass decorative lighting. Elegant and thoughtfully planned modern menus make The Enclosure is perfect for for all occasions. The Terrace at Arkle is a beautifully decorated outdoor space located just off the entrance to Arkle Bar. With it’s gorgeous floral-inspired design, retractable roof and cosy heaters, it’s the perfect spot to wine and dine al-fresco style, even in the cooler months.
