Culloden Battlefield & Visitor Centre

Activity • Inverness IV2 5EU, United Kingdom

Step onto one of the most powerful and moving sites in Scottish history. Culloden Battlefield marks the location of the final Jacobite Rising in 1746, a short but decisive battle that forever changed the Highlands. Begin your visit at the award-winning Visitor Centre, where a 360-degree immersive battle theatre places you right in the middle of the action. Explore the story of the 1745 Rising from both the Jacobite and Government sides through carefully curated displays of weapons, artefacts, and personal accounts that bring the history to life.

Outside, walk the windswept battlefield itself, visit the restored 18th-century Leanach Cottage, and take in panoramic views across the moor. Keep an eye out for Highland cows grazing nearby, a peaceful contrast to the events that once unfolded here. The visit also includes the chilling proclamation issued by the Duke of Cumberland in May 1746, outlining the harsh consequences faced by the defeated Jacobites.

Good to know before you go:

- The Battle of Culloden lasted less than an hour, yet its impact on Highland culture and clan life was enormous.
- It was the last pitched battle fought on British soil.
- The battlefield remains largely unchanged, making it one of the most authentic historic landscapes in Scotland.
- Clan stones mark where different Highland clans fought, and many visitors seek out their ancestral names.

Sobering, fascinating, and deeply atmospheric, Culloden is a place that leaves a lasting impression and offers a deeper understanding of Scotland’s history and identity.

Discover the true story of the 1745 Rising, from both the Jacobite and Government perspectives, in our accredited museum, where weapons and unique artefacts are displayed.

Enjoy panoramic views from the roof garden, see the restored 18th-century Leanach Cottage and spot Highland cows grazing on the battlefield.

Read the proclamation issued by the Duke of Cumberland in May 1746, describing what would happen to the defeated Jacobites. There is much to see and do at this wonderful historic treasure!

Cruise Loch Ness

Activity • Fort Augustus PH32 4BD, United Kingdom

All aboard for a classic Highland experience on Loch Ness. Based in the lively village of Fort Augustus, Cruise Loch Ness has been exploring these legendary waters since 1968 and has welcomed well over 1.5 million passengers along the way. That's a lot of hopeful eyes scanning the water.

Your cruise glides across Scotland's most famous loch, surrounded by steep hills and ever-changing skies, with plenty of time to take in the scenery and keep a playful lookout for Nessie. The company's experienced crew know these waters inside out, having travelled the equivalent of several times around the world right here on the loch.

Fort Augustus itself sits at the southwest end of Loch Ness, where the Caledonian Canal meets the loch. It's a popular stop for walkers, cyclists, and canal boats, and one of the prettiest places to begin a cruise.

Good to know before you go:

- Loch Ness holds more water than all the lakes in England and Wales combined, so Nessie has plenty of hiding places.
- Cruise Loch Ness boats are equipped with modern sonar, just in case the legend decides to make an appearance.
- The Caledonian Canal runs for 60 miles from Inverness to Fort William and passes straight through Fort Augustus via a series of impressive locks.
- Over the years, the loch has welcomed celebrities, explorers, and dedicated Nessie hunters, all hoping for a sighting.

Relaxing, scenic, and just mysterious enough, a Cruise Loch Ness experience is one of those moments where Highland legend and landscape come together perfectly.

Ring of Kerry

Activity • Ireland

Rolling green hills and sparkling lakes. Sheep bleating and cows grazing in patchwork fields. Pristine golden strands giving way to jaw-dropping cliffs. This treasure trove in the southwest coast of Ireland really has it all, which is why people come from far and wide to see the Ring of Kerry.

This scene-stealing route around the Iveragh Peninsula, beginning and ending in Killarney, takes in all the big hitters – Moll’s Gap, Torc Waterfall and the Gap of Dunloe are winners – but really, the route itself is so much more than the sum of its parts. Within this 179km of road, you’ll find that each turn brings a new treat to the eye, from lakes, rivers and waterfalls, to grand houses and castles. If you’re feeling adventurous, the Ring of Kerry cycling route is one of Ireland’s most famous, and there is really nothing like breathing in the fresh Kerry air as you drink up the incredible views around you.

This part of County Kerry is known for its pristine stretches of white, sandy beaches. Derrynane, Rossbeigh and St Finian’s Bay are some of the most stunning, each strand a beautiful border between the glinting ocean and mountains of the Iveragh Peninsula.

There’s a story behind the stunning "Ladies View" at the Lakes of Killarney – when Queen Victoria visited the Ring of Kerry in 1861, this spot was a favourite of her ladies-in-waiting. And the grandeur doesn’t stop at the scenery: sleeping on the edges of the world-famous lakes sits Muckross House & Gardens. This 19th century mansion, along with its lush gardens, became Ireland’s first National Park in 1932. Inside is luxury on another level, and upstairs you can even enter the perfectly preserved room that housed Queen Victoria during her famous stay!

Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre

Activity • Liscannor V95 KN9T, Ireland

One of Ireland's favourite visitor experiences, the Cliffs of Moher tower over the rugged west Clare coast. Walk the safe, paved pathways and view the famous Cliffs on Europe's western frontier and enjoy the spectacular vistas over the Atlantic Ocean and the Aran Islands. Their natural beauty has inspired artists, musicians, and poets for generations, as well as absorbing scientists and geologists, drawn by the unique landscape in which they sit. The Cliffs of Moher, the most famous cliffs in Ireland, will leave you awestruck, creating memories that will stay with you forever.

The Visitor Centre, itself sculpted from the landscape, hosts informative and entertaining permanent exhibits in its extensive gallery space and auditorium.

Visit the on-site theatre and experience an exhilarating virtual-reality cliff-face adventure.

The Cliffs of Moher has featured in classic movies like The Princess Bride and Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince.

The Cliffs of Moher was a 'tourist attraction' before that phrase was even heard of. In the early 19th century, the then landowner, Cornelius O'Brien, parliamentarian, and proud Clare man, built O'Brien's Tower so that the expansive cliff views across the Atlantic Ocean from Liscannor Bay to Galway Bay could be fully appreciated. This paved the way for today's centre to be the top visitor attraction in Ireland and on the Wild Atlantic Way.

It is now part of the Burren and Cliffs of Moher UNESCO Global Geopark supporting sustainable tourism and has been a special protected area for birds and wildlife since 1979, home to 35 different species of birds. Cliffs of Moher Visitor Experience is a proud member of the Burren Ecotourism Network. See for yourself what has drawn people for over two centuries, it will stir your senses and fill your soul.

Admission includes access to all areas, secure car parking, wi-fi, access to the interactive Cliffs exhibition and water refill stations. In addition, there are two cafes, a craft & gift store and a craft and retail street on the left as you walk out of visitor centre, toilets, first aid centre, information points, baggage storage, free app and audio guide. Binoculars and picnic blankets available on request and “lifts of Moher” mobility vehicle. Admission price contributes to conservation of the area.
